

Trail Obstacle Challenge

California State Horsemen's Association

and Trail Trial Clinic

At the Backcountry Horsemen of California Rendezvous
Friday & Saturday, April 1 & 2, 2011
Tehama District Fairgrounds-Red Bluff
in the Bull Sale covered arena rain or shine!

Are you ready for riding in the backcountry? Trail Trials are an excellent measure of skills necessary to safely negotiate trails and obstacles found along your way. This is an obstacle contest which will be held in an arena. This contest is one of the most popular at the rendezvous, are you up to the challenge?!!

One contest, enter either Friday or Saturday 1:00-3:00 p.m. at the gate.

New this year.....A trail trial clinic covering how obstacles are judged, how rules apply to obstacles, how you can improve your obstacle scores, improving your performance with your animal as a team. Clinic offered 10am-noon both Friday and Saturday with or without a mount. Free!

Contest Rules:

- CSHA Trail Trial rules will be used. Rules are available at www.trailtrials.com
- An animal may only be used on the course once (no multiple rider entries).
- A rider may enter only one of the classes.
 - Choose from:
 - Rider only class
 - Rider and one pack animal class
- Rider must furnish own pack animal, pack saddle and carry a load for Pack class.
 - Buckles to winner of each class
 - Awards 2nd-5th
 - Entry fee: $15/rider

Admission to the Rendezvous is free

Both the clinic and the contest are open to all participants
