2026 State Championship Event

Stone Cellar Homestead Camp, Eldorado National Forest

September 19/20, 2026

Competition is by invitation only (must have qualified), but family and friends are welcome to join in the fun and companion ride (info will be on invitations).

This beautiful location is a private campground between Ice House Reservoir and Loon Lake Campground. You will ride through amazing high Sierra country along a fork of the Rubicon River with lots of shade, single track trail and beautiful forest.

DETAILS:

- Plenty of camping around a high mountain meadow with horse water spigots throughout.
- Porta potties and manure carts throughout camp.
- Rustic but nice shower house
- Trees for highlining (must use tree savers), no corrals (bring your own)
- Directions will be posted on the Calendar of Events on Trailtrials.com
- Not recommended for rigs over 40'
- It will be cold at night! Dress you and your partner accordingly

Cost $150

Includes Sat/Sun breakfasts and Saturday dinner plus camping on Friday and Saturday. OK to come into camp on Thursday Sept. 17, 2026. Extra camping nights (Thursday and Sunday) are an additional $15.00 per night

TRAILER CRAWL SPECIAL EVENT! Friday evening: Everyone is invited but hosting trailers is limited to 15 trailers chosen by lottery! Send in your favorite pot luck recipe with your entry. You will be notified prior to the event if you get to show off your dish!
